

The background features a stylized landscape with rolling blue mountains under a bright yellow sun. A brown path leads from the foreground towards the mountains. In the foreground, a girl and a boy stand with their backs to the viewer, looking down the path. The girl is on the left, wearing a white school uniform with red accents and a pleated skirt. The boy is on the right, wearing a white school uniform with red accents and white pants. The sky is light blue with a few birds flying.
